

"I am perfectly willing to vote for this or any other bill short of putting to death a man who shall take a drink of liquor; I would not go that far." (Thos. A. Hendricks in the United States Senate. See Congressional Globe (official), 1st session, 40th Congress, March 8, 1867, page 31.)

Any Republican who wishes to elect Cleveland and Harrison, and is ashamed to vote for them, can do the next thing to it by voting for St. John and Hobbs.

It is a refreshing sight to see the Democrats who have voted the prohibition ticket at the last two city elections, rallying as one man to the support of Carter Harrison and voting that they can never support Dick Oglesby for fear he might interfere with the personal liberty of those who want to drink beer. How consistent!

A GANG of Democratic roughs attacked a Butler meeting at Albany, N. Y., a few nights ago, and rotten-eggged Senator Bradley, who was the Butler orator. Bad eggs are not much worse than the other bad Democratic arguments of the campaign.

Hon. THOS. SHARR, speaker of the New York house of representatives, writes this interesting paragraph in a letter to the New York Tribune:

A friend of mine was in Bradford, England, some time ago, and being in conversation with some manufacturers, one of them, who was a member of a certain local committee, said: "When from Bradford in 1840, for the election of your Free-Trade Democratic candidate, General Hancock, $350,000 and it was in Bradford from which we could elect a Free-Trade Democratic President, we could have from one to two millions of dollars."

This will be interesting reading to American workmen.

This critic of the Review is respectfully informed that the story of (Gov. Oglesby's purchase of an old slave, with the first money he ever possessed, for the purpose of setting him free, is a very old one, and is absolutely true. Did the Review man never hear of it before? It has been published over and over for twenty odd years, and if the critic never heard of it more the pity for him.

It is only a few weeks since the Review got off a large amount of indignation because the colored club quarreled past the Democratic head marshals while a meeting was in progress there, and warned the "niggers" that they must march somewhere else. Now the same paper talks lovingly to those same "niggers," and invites them to meet in the Democratic club room. This is certainly an evidence of progress upon the part of the Review man, who, not a great many years ago, bitterly opposed the emancipation of the colored race, and did what was in his puny power to prevent their enfranchisement. Ever since he was old enough he has trained with the party which went to war to perpetrate slavery, and has not hesitated since to affiliate with and assist in the schemes of the southern bulldozers, whose hands are stained with the blood of thousands of "niggers," slain to make Democratic success possible. If he thinks that he can hoodwink any colored man into voting the Democratic ticket by his hypocritical exhibition of sympathy at this late day he will find himself as badly fooled as he ever was in his life, and that is saying a good deal.

The editor of the Terre Haute (Ind.) Democrat, a Democratic paper, received a circular from Charles F. Shoemaker of the Indianapolis Sentinel asking for a friendly mention of the issue of the paper containing the foul attack upon Mr. Blaine's private character and the honor of his family. The editor of the Democrat answers Shoemaker that he can have a friendly mention in the following language:

Yes, you can have a "friendly mention." Any newspaper that will state the virtue of a member to gratify the cravings of a man who has plenty of money and plenty of friends, and who is not a member of the Democratic party, is a member of the Democratic party. Any newspaper that goes into moral bankruptcy to draw in to the respect of children for a mother can have plenty of "friendly mention" from the editor of the Democrat. Give me, by the editor of the Democrat, Y. S. Oberly, I will send you a marked copy.

Now, that's where the Terre Haute editor differs from his professional brother of the Decatur Review, who not only gave the Sentinel a "friendly mention" in connection with the Blaine scandal but continues to keep up the scandal by naming his readers from day to day with a repetition of the Sentinel. And we have to doubt that the Decatur Review has a marked copy of the Review whenever the latter has anything like a "friendly mention" of the efforts of the Review in behalf of "Reform."

POLITICAL NEWS.

Blaine and Logan Continue to Hold the Boards at Cincinnati—A Notable Day.

Cleveland in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., October 2.—Buffalo welcomed Governor Cleveland last night with a demonstration as has never before been witnessed here. Crowds have stood in the streets in the parade through the streets with much under a steady rain. Governor Cleveland was received with enthusiastic cheers along the line of march. The illumination was more than anything ever seen here. Nearly every house along the line of march, and hundreds on every street in other parts of the city were decorated with Chinese lanterns, and on Main street the festoons of lanterns across the street and on the house fronts made a scene of brilliancy beyond description.

At the fall of day, and the display of bunting, though liberal showers, it was not so casual as had been expected. On many buildings motes such as "Welcome home," "Welcome to Cleveland" were shown. Illuminated portraits of Governor Cleveland and President Harrison were displayed on several leading business houses.

The New office frame in gas-jets its large posters of Governor Cleveland, making one of the most unique and attractive decorations in the city. The illuminated portraits were frequently cheered. On the front of the Genesee temple, Mr. Cleveland reviewed the line and spoke, was displayed the legend, "Our citizen Governor and President, welcome home."

All the railroads were filled with passengers. The Central brought in four excursion trains, following close together, and numbering fifty-four cars. Syracuse sent 1,500 uniformed men. Sixteen carloads, including the uniformed corps, came in from Niagara Falls. A party of 150 persons, including many prominent citizens, went to Batavia in a special car, and on the arrival of the train on the Central. Crowds met the train at every station, but no stops were made. At Batavia the long continued calls for a speech were made. Governor Cleveland said: "No speech, gentlemen, but I give you both hands."

An indescribable struggle to shake his hands ensued, which only ended by the separation of the train. The train, which was made up of a general, a political, and a local train, with each other in a delirious honor to the Governor. As the train approached Buffalo the engines of all roads stopped, and the Governor's appearance was hailed with tremendous cheering.

Cleveland's Speech. BUFFALO, N. Y., October 2.—The procession moved at 9:30 p. m. and was two hours in passing. The Ninth Ward phalanx, the Governor's Home Guard, had the right of line, followed by the Democratic Legion, composed of business men, 650 strong. Then came Governor Cleveland in a carriage drawn by six white horses, and followed by thirty-eight carriages, two abreast. The Cleveland Corps, composed of young men of both parties, organized in the campaign, followed next. There were forty-four visiting companies, and the line contained sixty-eight bands and drum corps.

A fine contingent of new recruits nearly all the time the procession was moving, but appeared to have no effect on the procession, and the crowd closed in the wet till the end. Governor Cleveland sat with unwearying hand, bowing right and left to the cheers that greeted him on all sides. The Governor reviewed the line from the balcony of the Genesee House. At the close of the review, he was welcomed home to Buffalo in a brief speech by Henry Martin, President of the Manufacturers' and Traders' Bank. The Governor, in reply, spoke as follows:

I can hardly tell the people of Buffalo how I rejoice in this night and how gratified I am for the success of the Democratic party. I have no more to say to you than that I am proud to be a citizen of this city, and that I am proud to be a citizen of this State. I have no more to say to you than that I am proud to be a citizen of this State, and that I am proud to be a citizen of this country.

These friends are there tonight, and to all the friends who are here tonight, I say: I am proud to be a citizen of this city, and that I am proud to be a citizen of this State. I have no more to say to you than that I am proud to be a citizen of this State, and that I am proud to be a citizen of this country.

The visiting clubs were then taken to charge a demonstration by local clubs, and left for homes in good spirits. Governor Cleveland will remain here until tonight, when he returns to Albany.

Thus far in this campaign the Democratic speakers and organs have devoted themselves entirely to the vilification of the Republican candidates and to the distortion and misrepresentation of the records of the Republican party and its nominees. They do not attempt to discuss any principle or policy whatever. The reason of which is, of course, that their party has no principles or policy that they can discuss.

Two Democratic papers of this city have a hard time in getting at the exact facts when they try to report a Democratic meeting. The Herald says that there were 800 people on the Mt. Zion train last evening, "by actual count," although the count of the railroad officials who look up the tickets made the number but 107. The Review says there were 610 torches in the procession, "according to the smallest count." A resident of Mt. Zion informed us today that he counted the torches in line, and there were but 454. It appears to be an exceedingly difficult matter for the organs to be accurate.

BLAINE AND LOGAN

To be at Springfield October 24.

Telegraphic dispatches announce that the Republicans of Springfield have the promise of the attendance of Mr. Blaine and Gen. Logan at their great rally in that city on the 24th inst.

Mr. Blaine will enter the state at Danville, and pass through Decatur on his way to Springfield. Gen. Logan's date for his meeting in this city has not yet been fixed.

The following paragraphs appeared in the editorial columns of the Decatur Review this morning:

"There are seventy German newspapers in Illinois, and it is said that only three of the entire number support Blaine for the Presidency. This may explain the denunciation of what Neal Dow calls the 'bigoted Germans' by the zealous champions of the tattooed man."

"The Republican publishes a letter said to be from Neal Dow saying that his letter explaining why Blaine does not visit in Maine is a forgery. But where is the evidence that this letter from Neal Dow is not a forgery? Are the Mulligan letters forgeries?"

The manifest unfairness of these items is commended to the attention of those Republicans who are credulous enough to sometimes place confidence in what the Review says on political matters.

afternoon and evening of Thursday, Oct.
16. The other speaker will be George O.
Christian, also of Chicago.

A drum and flag will be voted to the most popular juvenile club at the K. of L. fair and festival.

G. P. HART, Upholsterer.

A DECATUR team of shooters were in Alton Tuesday and engaged in a prize tournament. Bunker Hill had a team there. In the shoot-off of the tie, Decatur won. The next tournament will be held at Jacksonville.

ing, October 3d. Refreshments will be served. Admission free. 29-dlw

In the "Hamlet" and "Dickens" entertainments at the opera house Monday and Tuesday evenings Mr. Wendling assumes the different characters with ease and ability and has many fine paintings behind him to illustrate points made.

open block, and see the elegant Haines Bro. pianos and fine Packard organs.

The "Devil's Auction" combination held forth at the opera house last night before a large audience. The two car-tloads of special scenery and bright costumes were the chief attractions. The English ballet and the tumbling by the three athletes pleased the crowd hugely.

Attention.
The members of the young men's Blaine and Logan Club are requested to meet at headquarters to-night in uniform.
By order of E. CHANDLER, Capt.

The Mail Delivery.
It is the purpose of Postmaster Lytle to have the free mail delivery system in full operation in Decatur on Monday next, by which time all the necessary supplies will have arrived. All but the boxes for the street lamp posts have already arrived, and they are expected to-day or to-morrow. The carriers have their gray suits, and have learned their routes, so they are ready to go to work.

Democrats at Mt. Zion.
Charles A. Ewing and J. M. Graham were the speakers at the democratic meeting at Mt. Zion last evening. A special effort was made to get up a demonstration to beat the Republican rally at the same place some weeks ago, but it fell far short of that meeting in point of numbers and enthusiasm. A delegation of men and boys went out from Decatur and took along two bands.

The law requires that every physician knowing of a case of contagious disease to report the same at once to the city clerk, and for failure to do so subjects the doctor to a fine of not less than $50.
Last year only 10 cases were reported.
There were certainly a greater number than that, and some physicians were guilty of neglect. A doctor told a reporter today that some of the negligent physicians would be shaken up before a justice if they fail to comply with the state law.

Coming West.
Hon. James G. Blaine and Gen. John
A. Logan are advertised to be at Springfield on Friday, Oct. 24th, and the committee at the state capital are arranging for a big demonstration.

Blaine's Future Programme.
Indiana comes, Oct. 2.—Mr. Blaine will go from West to Michigan and spend Oct. 14, 15, 16 and 17 in that state. The 18th and 19th will be devoted to rest and recreation. Beginning with the 20th, he will spend four days in Indiana, filling a programme which will be arranged by the State Central committee. On the morning of the 24th, he will be received by the Illinois State Central Committee at Danville and will proceed thence to Springfield. Gen. Logan will spend three days in Indiana during the last week in October.

At the Spargur-Hughes wedding on Wednesday evening Mrs. D. C. Moffatt presented the bride with a fine tabl. cloth and napkins; and Mr. J. W. Travis gave a beautiful bouquet. The gifts were intentionally omitted from the list published yesterday.

Not Going Now.
There is a rumor afloat that the Blaine and Logan clubs intend going to Bloomington next week. There is no foundation for the story. Decatur has received no invitation to send up a delegation, and so far as known there is no rally to be held there during the coming week.

This regular October meeting of the city council will be held on Monday evening. Mayor Chambers and Alds. Wayne and Star will not be present. They are in Michigan trying to find deer.

Friday Night.
The Blaine and Logan Club will hold its regular weekly meeting on Friday night, October 3d. All members are requested to be on hand. Business of importance will be discussed.

J. R. MOORE, Chm'n.
YESTERDAY Mrs. Dr. O. F. Corman received a telegram announcing the death at Garnet, Kansas, of Mrs. A. H. Scott, her sister. Deceased was the mother of Hon. J. O. Humphrey, of Springfield, and her husband is Rev. A. H. Scott, pastor of the Garnet Baptist church.

The War Song Concert at the Baptist church last evening was liberally patronized by lovers of music, the receipts being over $50. The concert was a pronounced success and was generally applauded.
The Arion Quartette giving the war songs with splendid effect. The other numbers were given by Mrs. K. Harwood, Mrs. A.
E. Kinney favoring the audience with recitations which were well received.

Retired from Business.
James A. Miller has retired from the paper and rag business on North Main street, and will travel for Halford & Co., millers. The rag house business will be carried on as heretofore but by another party, who is arranging to take possession to-morrow or Monday.

The double office of E. N. Armstrong, division superintendent of the Wabash, has been fitted up in elegant style. The floors are nicely carpeted and the desks are in tip-top finish. Mr. Rider, the private secretary, says "we live here and have to be provided with home comforts."

A THREE-YEAR old child of Mr. George L. Andrews, of the Wabash, met with a distressing mishap yesterday evening at the family residence on East William St.
A girl was carrying the child when she slipped and fell on her charge, breaking one of its limbs near the ankle.

There was an exciting runaway this morning on Merchant street and the old square, but fortunately no one was hurt and no damage done. P. H. Brueck's bay horse, attached to a road cart, was frightened by a boy near the drug store, and the animal tore around quite lively, finally going home.

Happy Married.
The noon hour to-day was the occasion of the marriage of Miss Lizzie Baller, daughter of Mr. F. A. Baller, and leading soprano of the First Presbyterian Church choir, and Mr. E. Bean, of Mason, Ill.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
Brush, in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties and the members of the choir.—Bloomington Leader, Oct. 2.

Decatur Lecture Course.
We have secured the following attractions for the coming winter: John B.
Gough, Phoebe W. Cousins, Joseph Cook,
The Naahville Students, Wm. Parsons and E. J. Burdette. We are assured of as fine entertainments as have ever been given by any lecture course in Decatur. We have secured these persons at great expense and have retained the last expense of $200 for each course ticket.
This gives the best and cheapest entertainments that we have ever enjoyed for years.
Tickets can be had of W. E. Mann, O. E.
Curtis, W. T. Wells, E. P. Morehouse, Geo. Tucker, Miss Powers, Miss Farrell, J. E. Saxton or A. H. Mills. Miss Cousins will open our course on Nov. 21st, and John B. Gough will be here Dec. 18th.
All who desire tickets should get them at once. oct3-dlw

The Illinois Midshipman.
Last evening the large audience at the Debatel were entertained with a practical discourse from Rev. J. C. Formosco, of Leasport. The debate is lately from Kansas, and is full of the western missionary fire.

The Eldership met at 8:30. After calling the roll, the committee on overtures made a partial report. The item of foreign mission work elicited a great deal of interest.

The Eldership took a recess and during the interval raised $181.25 for foreign mission work. The question of licensing a man who uses tobacco is now pending.

Rally at Elwin.
The Republicans of Wheeland township held an enthusiastic rally at Elwin last night. It was well attended by ladies and voters, the crowd numbering about 300. J. C. Roby presided, and solid speeches on the tariff, wages, and the records of the opposing candidates and voters were delivered by Edwin Park and A. T. Sumner. Both were warmly applauded. Elwin has a splendid golf club which gave several songs. There was a brilliant torchlight procession in which Elwin and Mt. Zion clubs participated.
After the speaking the Elwin Blaine and Logan club arranged for the Rowell rally at Shady Grove next Wednesday.

Data Cancelled.
Frank Chantrea, the actor, who was stricken with paralysis Wednesday evening, in New Jersey, died Thursday morning without recovering consciousness.
The company was booked to appear in Decatur next March. Death has cancelled the date.

Butler's Day in Decatur.
The first Butler meeting of the campaign in Decatur was held yesterday and last evening at the tabernacle. There was no torchlight procession or fire-works display, but there was a powerful sight of earnestness manifested among those in the audience. It was expected that Gen.
A. M. West, greenback nominee for the state presidency, would be here, but he is sick at his home in Mississippi, and could not come. A few gathered at the tabernacle at 2 p. m., and in the absence of the chief attraction, D. L. Brancher, of Logan county, greenback nominee for congress in this district, held forth a short time and made a speech acceptable to his audience. The speakers at the evening meeting were Rev. A. C. Vandewater, of Pana, nominee for lieutenant governor, and Mr. Eaton, publisher of a greenback paper at Champaign.

Republican Appointments.
The following appointments for republican meetings in Macon county have been arranged: Austin—Town Hall, Oct. 4, evening—W. C.
Johns and J. J. Finn.
CAPTAIN ROWELL'S MEETINGS.
Batesville's Grove, near Hartsville—Oct. 6, afternoon—Rowell and Vail.
Warrensburg—Oct. 6, evening—Rowell and Vail.

Forney—Oct. 7, evening—Rowell and Grason.
Concordia's Grove, near Ellettsville—Oct. 8, afternoon—R. Vail, H. K. Mills and Johns.
Boody—Oct. 8, evening—Rowell and Rogers.
Long Creek—Oct. 9, afternoon—Rowell and Edwin Park.

Green—Oct. 8, evening—Rowell and Grason.
Nantico—October 10, afternoon—Rowell and Grason.
Macon—Oct. 10, evening—Rowell and J. A.
Brown.
Macon—Oct. 11, evening—Rowell, Johns and Grason.

PERSONAL MENTION.
James A. Miller will travel for the milling firm of John Halford & Co.

Hon. Chas. S. Lawrence, Republican nominee for representative in this district, is in the city accompanied by J. V. Beckman.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Pratt departed for Pennsylvania and Connecticut Wednesday night. They will make short visits and be home in about two weeks.

Mr. J. L. Nichols, of Chicago, is at Blume's sewing machine room to-day with a magnificent display of embroidered goods, the work of the Domestic machines.

E. D. Bartholomew is home from a purchasing trip in New York City. He has just over the democratic importers and manufacturers volunteered the statement that they couldn't stand free trade, and that they will vote for Blaine and Logan and protection.

The Long Sleep.
The funeral of the late Colonel George H. Woods took place from St. John's Episcopal church yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of friends who knew and admired the deceased. The service was conducted by Rev. W. H.
Moore, and members of Duane Post, No. 141, G. A. R., accompanied the remains to Greenwood cemetery, preceded by the Post band and a guard of honor.
The procession of carriages conveyed burial to the grave. After the Episcopal burial service had been read, the G. A. R. guard of honor fired the military burial salute of three volleys over the grave.
The pallbearers were Messrs. John Ulrich, W. E. Nelson, Louis Fleury, Judge Greer, W. A. Ragans and E. McClellan.

Fourth Ward Boys.
The boys of the fourth ward school took a vote on President to-day, with the following result: Blaine 133, Cleveland 91, St. John 8, Butler 8. At this rate the Democratic victories of the future are a very, very long way off, and will hardly come around in time to be of much interest to any Democrat living to-day.

Wedding Monday Night.
This unique and instructive entertainment has been secured to appear at the Opera House Monday and Tuesday.
"Evenings with Charles Dickens and his Interpreters" and "Hamlet," which are profusely illustrated with rare and beautiful pictures, and with the finest apparatus for illustrating them, which have been obtained at an expense exceeding $20,000.
Proceeding the exhibition will be a short lecture delivered in Mr. George R. Wendling's own inimitable style, explaining his researches among the delineators of Shakespearean characters. The illustrations will embrace views of characters and scenes from these great authors, as well as scenery in England and Italy.
Taken altogether, this will be the most attractive entertainment presented in our city for a long time, and more instruction can be obtained in listening to these lectures and viewing these illustrations than can be obtained by a perusal of their works for years.

Mexican War Veterans.
The Mexican War Veterans National Association meets in convention at St.
Louis, Mo., on the 8th and 9th of Oct.
By resolution passed by our State Reunion at Vandalia, June 18 and 19, all veterans were requested to meet at the Plantation Hotel in St. Louis on the 8th, and attend the National convention in a body from the state of Illinois.

Capt. JOHN W. HANLEY, Sec'y.
Mexican War Vet. of Ill.

To the Memory of Chas. W. Whitest.
We peacefully died among relatives at Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 29th, 1884, in the 62d year of his age.
Major Charles W. Whitest was a soldier of the late war in the service of the United States as 1st Lieutenant of Company I of the 6th Regiment of Illinois Cavalry Volunteers, entering the army in 1861, and discharged in December, 1864, as Major of the 6th Ill. Cavalry Vols.
Since 1865 he has been a citizen of Decatur, Ill., and actively engaged in the business pursuits of life until the spring of 1884, when his health, upon which the onerous duties of a soldier, while serving his country, to a great degree impaired his naturally strong physical constitution, and he gradually but surely succumbed to nature's demands, and he has gone to an "eternal soldiers' home." and Whereas, The messenger Death has again visited our Post with death for one of the Grand Army in Heaven, and the soldier in "soldaten to order" reported to the Sentinel as deceased for duty. The messenger came peacefully, and not in the din and crash of battle as might have been expected.
He was prepared, we trust, with the cheerful surrender that was his wont to bequeath to his family and friends the assurance of a comfortable and accounted for, and upon command from on high he entered upon his well-earned rest and as a comrade and friend "at rest." Peace to his soul and rest to his soul. We now appreciate his worth in life, for he was a man of unfailing bravery and fortitude on the field of battle, a good citizen in the peaceful avocations of life, a kind husband and indulgent father, a working, faithful soldier, and comrade in the Grand Army, a man of patience, energy and of resolution in death, and we deeply deplore his loss to his family, to the public, and to comrades of Duane Post No.
141, G. A. R.

Requiescat. That we hereby tender our heartfelt sympathies to the widow bereaved and to the children fatherless left to mourn, and that their hope and trust may be that the kind and affectionate husband, the indulgent and loving father may joyfully meet them hence, on the other side of the "dark river" in the time to come. Our sympathies mingle with their sorrow, and we tender to the family our sincere condolences, and we pray for the repose of the departed soul.

Requiescat. That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be entered upon the records of Duane Post No. 141, G. A. R., and a copy of the same be presented to the family of our deceased comrade by the adjutant of this Post.

Resolved, That the Post Adjutant furnish the city press with copies of the foregoing with the friendly request of publication.

D. H. FULLER,
R. P. LITTLE,
Committee on Condolence.

Lost Boy.
Albert Childs, a lad 15 years of age, left his home in LaPlace on the 12th day of September. He was one of the Juvenile Asylum boys brought here from New York four years ago. He is rather small for his age, short and stumpy; dark hazel eyes and dark hair. He wore a light suit of clothes and a hat with holes in the crown. Any information will be thankfully received by J. W. Davis, at LaPlace, Illinois. oct2-dlw

Fair and Festival.
The grandest fair and festival ever held in Decatur will be given by the ladies of St. Patrick's church in the Tabernacle on the evenings of Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 14th, 15th, 16th, and 17th of October. Several new features that will astonish and delight everybody will be introduced in this fair.
Remember the time fixed, and if you wish to have a good old time, a splendid supper, lots of fun, and beautiful and valuable presents, just wait, get ready and attend this entertainment.
Oct. 8—dwt17.

State Y. M. C. A. Convention.
The twelfth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association workers of Illinois will be held in Joliet, Oct.
9th to 12th. The different phases of the state, district and personal work will be discussed by prominent workers. Among those who will be present at the convention may be mentioned Robert Weiden-sall, Western Secretary of the International Association; L. D. Wisnand, College Secretary of the International Association; W. E. Lewis, State Secretary of Wisconsin; J. H. Elliott, General Secretary, at Minneapolis, Minn.; John V.
Farwell, D. W. Whitely, J. L. Houghtal-ing, C. H. McCormick, C. M. Morton, O.
S. Lyford, and others from Chicago. The music will be in charge of Prof. E. O.
Kreel, the sweet singer, and the convention promises to be a feast of good things to all christian workers. Entertainment will be provided for all delegates, and reduced rates will be offered by the railroad companies.

Any young man wishing to attend can have further particulars by addressing W. W. Vanarsdale, Secretary Y. M. C. A.
Building, Chicago, or by applying to W.
E. Mann, General Secretary of the Decatur Association.

There is trouble ahead for all Decatur parties who have been trespassing on Samuel A. Smallwood's farm, north of the city. He threatens to have the next party arrested who comes out there to hunt on his farm.

MARRIED.
In this city at his office, on Oct. 3, 1884
by Judge S. F. Greer, Mrs. NATHAN E.
SKIPP, of Christian county, and Miss MARY A. PATRICK, of Shelby county.

DIED.
In Long Creek township, Oct. 2, 1884, A. Mc-MURRAY, aged 74 years.
The deceased was taken dangerously ill on Monday with congestion of the brain. He leaves a widow and two grown children.
The funeral will take place from the family residence in Long Creek on Sunday at 10 a. m., and the body will be brought to Decatur for interment in Greenwood cemetery.

Reception D'Art.
At Geo. P. Blume's Sewing Machine Barn, 349 N. Water street, Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 3, 4, 5 and 7. A most cordial invitation is extended to you to attend the Reception and Exhibition of Decorative Art, consisting of a large and varied line of Household Draperies, Banners, Screens, and a great variety of fancy articles of domestic production. These articles are made of satin, silk, plush, felt, crepe, etc., decorated with embroidery, applique, Mosaic and etchings in a variety of designs, using chenille, avarane, embroidery silk, cres, gold thread, finger cord, etc. The display embraces a line of work heretofore only produced by the hand, and ranges from the coziest to the least expensive, covering the entire line of Novel and Decorative Work. The Queen of the Orient represents a Persian female figure, embroided with Arrasene, pronounced by critics the finest work of the kind ever produced by the hand, and it is to be appreciated. Mrs. Nichols and a competent score of assistants will take pleasure in giving full information. A handsome souvenir will be given all ladies 25c memento of this occasion.

Yours, respectfully,
Geo. F. BLUME.

J. B. BULLARD,

A NEW PLACE TO BUY STOVES.

For the past four years we have been unable (from lack of room to show them) to supply the public with Stoves as we did for many years prior to that time. Having now nearly completed the transfer of our Wholesale Stock to our new building on North Water Street, we are pleased to announce that BY THE END OF THE PRESENT WEEK we will have on exhibition at our old stand, No. 134 East Main Street, the most complete and best selected stock of ever shown in this market. We have not a single Stove in our assortment that does not possess the greatest merit in its own respective class. We present below illustrations and descriptions of a few patterns of Heating Stoves for which we make the broadest claims. We would be glad to have you call and see them and investigate them thoroughly before purchasing elsewhere.

ROUND PENINSULAR,

WITH OR WITHOUT OVEN. FULL NICKELLED OR PLAIN.

(Plain Stove has as much NICKEL ORNAMENTATION as many Stoves which are styled FULL NICKELLED.)

ENTIRELY NEW FROM THE FOUNDATION.

Mica Doors Rabbeted together form a Perfect Circle.

No Unsightly Joints between the Doors.

The Latest and Best Base Burner ever made.

Every Important Feature is Embodied in this Stove.

Greatest Heating Power Combined with the Greatest Economy.

Being the Latest, Combines all the Good Points in the Best.

Reversible Collar. Pipe Top or Back.

Our VIBRATING ANTI-CLINKER GRATE, with Draw Center, is made concave, so that all refuse works to the center, where it is dropped into the ash pan without disturbing the fire.

THE LOW OVEN STOVE is warranted to bake bread, roast meat or boil water equal to any cook stove. All who see our PENINSULAR pronounce it most symmetrical in outline and proportions, and altogether one of the handsomest Base Burners ever made.

BANNER BASE HEATER.

A new and elegant Diving Flue and Base Heating Stove,

FOR WOOD ONLY.

Very ornamental pattern. Extra large feed door with smoke plate attachment.

Swing Top and Cover.

Spun Nickel Urn.

Large Nickel Foot Rail.

A stove which will take the same position in wood districts that is occupied by hard coal base burners in coal districts.

Soft Coal Heating Stove Made.

HAS MANY IMITATORS BUT NO EQUALS.

This Stove is constructed with the intention of using a drum, in which is placed a division plate, as shown in sectional cut. By its use the greatest heating capacity of the drum section is obtained, and much of the heat, which in ordinary stoves would pass up the flue, is saved. The castings in all sizes are extremely heavy and durable. The best evidence of the good qualities of the stove is the fact that it has now been made nearly twenty-five years, and in that time it has been found unnecessary to change it in any way. They never fail to give satisfaction.

This stove is especially adapted to the use of churches, schools, public halls, and all other places where a large amount of heat is required.

We have it in 5 sizes, ranging from 180 to 500 lbs. in weight.

We invite your attention to illustrations and descriptions of some of our other patterns, which will be found in the Daily Herald and Daily Review, especially our SQUARE PENINSULAR, PEERLESS PENINSULAR and BANNER FRANKLIN, all of which are stoves we can not say enough for.

The Daily Republican.

Mr. BLAINE has not done himself greater credit since the opening of the campaign than he did at Toledo in saying: "I should rather be the victim of slander than the author of it."

New York Star, (Tammany): The Butler boom is not fading away. There is the manifest sort of principle behind it. And the nearer election day grows the more occasion there is for Democratic anxiety over the size of the "protesting vote," which Butler will poll.

PHILADELPHIA Press (Rep.): Thos. A. Hendricks was a disunion Democrat during the Nation's trial in civil war. Many men now belong to the Democratic party who were loyal in thought and act, but the Democratic candidate for Vice President was not one of these. He sympathized with rebellion. It is right to try a candidate by his record. As Hendricks proved unfaithful in one emergency, he may in another, and is, therefore, unworthy of public confidence.

A Remarkable Escape. Mrs. Mary A. Dalley, of Tunkhannock, Pa., was afflicted for six years with Asthma and Bronchitis, during which time the best physicians could give no relief. Her life was despaired of, until in last October she procured a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, when immediate relief was felt, and by continuing its use for a short time she was completely cured, gaining in flesh 50 pounds, in a few months.

Democracy in Chaos. The country cannot too deeply ponder the fearful significance of the point made by Mr. Blaine in his brief speech at Toledo. No more weighty utterance has been given to the country since President Lincoln's pithy speech at Gettysburg. Mr. Blaine said: "There is not one great measure that the Republican party has adopted, nor one great step the party has taken since the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln in 1861, that the Democratic party has not opposed and has not considered unconstitutional. So that today to remand the Government of the United States to the control of the Democracy is not merely an ordinary change of parties. It is a total reversal of the entire policy that has distinguished the Government of the United States since 1861."

Apply Mr. Blaine's point in practice. If the Democratic doctrine is true, that a protective tariff is unconstitutional, then an importer has the right to simply nullify the statute and demand that his goods be laid on the wharf without paying a cent of duty. Every Democratic collector in every American port would be bound to close the doors of his custom-house, and order his clerks to perform no other duties than to draw on the Treasury for their salaries, for all import duties are unconstitutional, since there is not a duty left in the tariff act that is not in some degree protective. The simple carrying out of this Democratic doctrine for one day would end the solvency of the United States, reduce its bonds to a dead level with Confederate scrip, destroy the value of greenbacks and National bank notes, and send gold as measured in paper currency not merely up to 280, as it was when Grant defeated the Democratic party on the Rapidan, but would send gold as measured in Federal paper, up to 2,800. The Democratic party has never ceased to denounce the abolition of slavery since the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution are void and no legal barrier intervenes between the backs of 6,000,000 blacks at the South and the lash of the man-owner. It is hardly necessary to carry the illustration further to indicate that if the Democracy return to power they must either eat their words and abandon all their fundamental principles or resolve the country into chaos.
